

*God's eternal providence is the kingdom on earth.
On earth He wanted to see His true Garden in bloom.
Filled with perfume of the Heart spread His glorious joy.
Such is the glory to come, crowning all of the world.
Such is the glory to come, crowning all of the world.
From last verse of Garden of Restoration.*

Greetings!

Recently Hyung Jin Nim shared about an experience he had while studying the Bible at home. Suddenly he started to smell flowers, not just one or two flowers, but the scent of a whole garden in his room.

Since this was in the middle of the winter, he called Yeonah Nim and asked her, "are you wearing any perfume or spraying the house with air freshener?" Her answer was no. He realized that his spiritual sense of smell had been opened.

I also had a similar experience on one of the Sundays that Hyung Jin Nim was giving a sermon. I suddenly started to smell the scent of True Father. I knew Father's scent because during 10 years at East Garden I was often around him.

I was very surprised that Father's scent was with Hyung Jin Nim and I couldn't stop crying because I missed Abonim so much. I felt that True Father is here right now with us!

I believe that since God wants to shed his love and grace on each one of us during this time when the Original Garden is being restored, many will have their spiritual senses opened in this way!
