

*"Keep your heart with all vigilance; for from it flow the springs of life."
Proverbs 4:23*

Greetings!

In Sunday's Sanctuary sermon, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim bluntly discuss how to resolve the contradictions in America as a nation and the contradictions in our own lives. The unique promise of America as a nation founded upon God-given freedoms is endangered by policies and a culture that ignore God-given values and seek to impose a godless worldview that can never bring about the promised happiness and fulfillment.

Isn't it refreshing to have a Unificationist leader who is unafraid to speak the truth without fear? Instead of spouting politically correct platitudes that gloss over the real issues in our nation and in our lives?

On the outside most of us look like we're doing fine, but like a glacier there is a strong current of muddy water under the surface threatening to drag us down. This is our "unconscious theology," often full of worry and anxiety.

The only solution is to guard our deepest heart and affections. We forget or are unaware that the Holy Spirit is praying for us and will change us if we allow ourselves to abide in (the returning) Christ. Let God "design" your "garden!"

Also, I thought you would be interested to read the following thought-provoking Facebook post from a sister answering a common question about why is Hyung Jin Nim "attacking True Mother?"

Some brothers and sisters are asking me why is Hyung Jin Nim attacking his own mother? Others are asking why is he attacking True Mother?

Hyung Jin Nim as far as I understand is standing in two positions. One. He is one of the sons of his own biological mother. Two. He is the inheritor of True Father's authority.

In position one as a son, he talks about how he loves her mother. In some of his speeches he tells how close he is to his mother. He can even enter his mother's room to greet her even if his mother tells him not to enter because she is not done putting on her clothes yet! When I heard this i just smiled and thought what a lovely son he is, thinking that he is already a mature man at that time. How lovely a son he is.

But in position two, he has to base his speech on the Word which is absolute, eternal and unchanging. You know God's words are straightforward and do not give preferences according to position. God's Words are based on absolute principles. Bases on these Principles, he speaks really hard on True Mother.

You know in the time of Jesus Christ, when his mother Mary, his own biological mother, fails to do what God wishes, Jesus called her 'Woman, what have you do to with me?' and also when Peter, his disciple, suggested to him something that is not God's Will he said to Peter, 'Get behind me, satan,' and then when the religious leaders could not open their spiritual *eyes and ears to discern God's Will, Jesus called them, 'you brood of vipers.'

Jesus Christ was very hard to those who cannot discern God's wishes. I know True Father was also the same. Father spoke without inhibition as long as he proclaimed God's Absolute Will. So is Hyung Jin Nim. Aju.*
