

"Article I of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Heaven is that you will not stain the blood lineage. The purpose is to preserve the lineage, keeping it completely clean. It means to maintain the purity of blood lineage for eternity. From this point, the blessed blood lineage that has been inherited through God's love and God's life cannot be contaminated by the actions immersed in the habitual pattern of the fallen world...The second point is not to violate human rights, and the third point is not to steal public money (nak chwi), using public property for yourself." Coronation Ceremony of God's Kingship, January 13, 2001

Greetings!

In an entertaining and enlightening Sunday Service, Hyung Jin reflected on the previous Sunday's Memorial of True Father's Seonghwa and Blessing event, the background leading up to the Crowning ceremony and about activities that followed with brothers and sisters from Korea and Japan.

He also elaborated about the importance of defining the founding principles of Cheon Il Guk in order to ensure that it does not replicate the Satanic kingdoms of the past which subjugated God's children in order to serve entrenched and often self-serving hierarchies, whether they be political, financial or religious. An anointed person in high authority must respect and obey guidelines such as the three CIG Constitution articles declared by True Father (see above).

In contrast to the hierarchical CIG Constitution decreed by the Family Federation, the human rights that Father said must not be violated are specified in the Cheon Il Guk Bill of Rights that Hyung Jin Nim declared on August 30, which are based on the first ten amendments to the U.S. Constitution.

These freedoms, declared by the U.S.A. founders, are not an historical aberration of rebellious colonists, but rather universal rights that all countries should aspire to and that all people have a moral imperative to claim. America, which Father called an "elder son" nation and fruit of Christian history because it advocated the protection of religious liberty and "God-given freedoms" against the power of the state, should fulfill its responsibility to stand for these ideals in the midst of an increasingly Godless world.

He also shared deeply about his love and respect for his older brother, Kook Jin Nim, who has sacrificed greatly in order to support Hyung Jin Nim's mission as the heir/inheritor chosen by True Father. Without the support of this victorious "Cain," he would not have been able to go forward to fulfill the mission to which True Father ordained him, especially after he was driven out from the palace.

Yeonah Nim explained with tears about the challenges of surrendering to God's will and the joy and liberation that come from doing so.

Following are a series of short videos of the celebrations after last week's victorious Seonghwa Memorial, Crowning Ceremony and Blessing. It is evident that Hyung Jin Nim has embraced the "wilderness" as a gift from Heavenly Father, a place to ground his faith and to reconnect to the inhabitants of the Creation.

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
