

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon and touched with our hands, concerning the word of life- the life was made manifest, and we saw it, and testify to it, and proclaim to you the eternal life which was with the Father and was made manifest to us- that which we have seen and heard we proclaim also to you, so that you may have fellowship with us; and our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ. 1 John 1-3

The communist bloc propounded evolutionary theory, whereas the religious realm insisted on there being a creator; hence they fought with one another. What has been advocated by worldwide blocs all ended in failure... The world will become unstable without eliminating evolutionary theory and establishing the nucleus of absolute values based on a theory of creation, centered on the absolute God. CSG 1695

Greetings!

Many Blessed Children have fond memories of riding horses at New Hope Farms in New York. Lowell Ellanson's testimony about "Encountering God and Satan at New Hope Farms" presents an eye-opening account of Father's vision and dreams for creating New Hope Farms, how Lowell and Lesa strove to fulfill those dreams in the face of an agenda opposite to Father's and how Lowell was delivered from his despair and thoughts of self-destruction after New Hope Farms was sold through his experience of God's love.

Sanctuary chapters have now been established in 34 countries around the world, with 129 congregations.

Bringing things out into the open exposes Satan. Hiding doesn't make it go away. It's important to realize that we are not automatically protected from sexual situations at a church camp. We all need to be vigilant. We all have to respect the laws of nature. We should each protect our "temple of God." Awareness of risk reduces likelihood of anything bad happening.

Hyung Jin Nim discussed Pastor Timothy Keller's video "A Reason for Living" in which he lists reasons people choose a worldview, including for sociocultural reasons, to be part of a certain group or personal reasons. There is a lot of peer pressure for atheism at universities.

Many atheists say, "I'm living to be free, to follow my heart." The famous French self-declared atheist authors, Sartre and Camus, stated that if you want to be free, you have to admit our actions are totally meaningless. Camus wrote about the Greek Myth of Sisyphus, whom the Gods punished for giving secrets to humans by condemning him to roll a huge boulder up a hill each day only to have it roll down at day's end. A modern version would be to condemn a man to do data entry all day on his computer only to have the computer crash ten minutes before 5pm each day.

A Reason for Living- Timothy Keller Sermon

Hell is having to execute a pointless act over and over again. According to Camus we choose not to believe in God because we desire to be free of any rules. For someone who does not understand the reality of an afterlife, whether you live unselfishly or not, you will die and your body will rot. Life therefore becomes meaningless.

The atheist Harvard biologist Stephen J. Gould stated that "we may yearn for a higher answer but none exists." English author Aldous Huxley's honest admission was that the philosophy of meaningless is liberating because it leads to the position that "I can do whatever I want." But it also leaves you with no basis for stating that anything is good, true or just.

If we believe in meaningless, then nothing is absolutely wrong. Sartre's maxim was "It is forbidden to forbid." The fallacy of such thinking is that you're insisting that your relativistic view of truth is absolute.

In contrast Christian author C.S. Lewis wrote "atheists believe there is no such thing as evil. But there is evil." Dorothy Sayers' view was that in this world there is the widespread embrace of total tolerance, but in hell it's called despair. Why? Because there is nothing worth dying for."

If you use something and you don't honor its design or "logos," you undermine its reason for existence. If you use a microphone as an egg beater, you not only dishonor its design, you likely destroy it.

Logos, or the Word of God is the reason for life. The Designer of the world entered into the world, revealed in the person of Christ.

Make Dan Fefferman's "Sanctuary" the Theme Song of the Unification Sanctuary!

Based on a powerful dream he'd had, Dan created and posted his outstanding song, "Sanctuary," three years ago on his SoundCloud channel. Several Unificationists believe God inspired Dan to write this song and that it deserves to be the theme song of the Unification Sanctuary!

*Last night I dreamed a dream and it was powerful strange
About a city ruled by men of pain and fear,*

*But then a chosen few unlocked the darkened gate
They finally found their way to Sanctuary!*

*Brave soldiers sacrificed and many souls did fall
For he's a lion strong our ancient enemy
But when we make it home to Sanctuary's walls
We cleanse our wounds with grace in Sanctuary.*

*Oh Sanctuary sweet,
Sanctuary true,
Sanctuary there for me and there for you
Sanctuary strong,
Sanctuary free,
Sanctuary waits for you and waits for me
Sanctuary, Sanctuary, Sanctuary, Sanctuary*

*I thought I never knew how to dance and sing
For dark and forgetfulness had overtaken me
But when I sheltered safe in Sanctuary's wings
The music in my soul did not forsake me.*

*Oh Sanctuary sweet, Sanctuary true,
Sanctuary there for me and there for you
Sanctuary strong, Sanctuary free,
Sanctuary waits for you and waits for me.
Sanctuary, Sanctuary, Sanctuary, Sanctuary*

*Oh Sanctuary sweet, Sanctuary true,
Sanctuary there for me and there for you
Sanctuary strong, Sanctuary free,
Sanctuary waits for you and waits for me.
Sanctuary, Sanctuary, Sanctuary, Sanctuary*

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
