

Because you have raged against me and your arrogance has come to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my bit in your mouth, and I will turn you back on the way by which you came.'
Isaiah 37:29

*You should not think you are entitled to go to heaven. You should think of building heaven on earth. Before that, you must become a heavenly person. In order to become such a person, you have to make unity of heart with Heavenly Father to the degree that you can say confidently, "Father's heart is my heart, and my heart is Father's heart. Accordingly, in this earthly life, you should be a person representing God's heart, the Lord's heart, as well as the heart of your ancestors. By doing so, all historical problems can be solved." Greetings!,

In Sunday's Service, Hyung Jin Nim spoke about "The Kingdom Born Again." saying that the true divide is not between rich and poor, white or black, but rather between predators of any class who want to control and exploit others and those who simply seek to lives of integrity with their loved ones and families. Our challenge is to keep predators out of power.

The Kingdom Born Again - Jan. 22, 2017 Sanctuary Service

The founders of our nation would be horrified to see the concentration of power in Washington, DC. The inauguration of Donald Trump is a hopeful moment in American history if he is able to dismantle the new world order by ending the control of America's elite, globalist class.

Before Trump spoke, six religious leaders offered prayers to God for the nation, more than any other president in history. He spoke about transferring power not to one political party, but back to the American people.

6 faith leaders prayed at Donald Trump's inauguration.

With the inauguration of a new president dedicated to dismantling the "liberal world order," disappointed supporters of Hillary Clinton raged against President Trump at a "Women's March" sponsored by Planned Parenthood and other far-left organizations including scores of groups financed by billionaire George Soros. Despite claims of "inclusiveness" and "speaking for the marginalized," pro-life women's groups were not welcomed. Instead the Women's March demanded "reproductive freedom" funded by continued government support for abortions and birth control as well as "immigrant and refugee rights regardless of status (legal or illegal) or country of origin."

Madonna: "I have often thought of blowing up the White House."

Pop star Madonna, who has made hundreds of millions over several decades mocking religion and morality, called for a "revolution of love," while adding that "I have often thought of blowing up the White House." While expressing concern about the victimization of women, none of the march speakers mentioned the plight of tens of thousands of Christian and Yezidi women who have been murdered or sold into sex slavery in Syria and Iraq or girls who are prevented from getting an education in Afghanistan and other countries around the world.

While Hyung Jin Nim praised the prosperity that he believes Trump will bring, he warned about the decadence that often accompanies wealth, quoting Victor Hugo's statement that "Adversity makes men, and prosperity makes monsters."

Former Vice President Joe Biden lamented the risk of the "liberal international order" collapsing at the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland. Such a decline would offer an opportunity to reestablish natural rights based on personal freedom and responsibility and based on sovereign citizens ready to defend their families and communities.

Anti-Trump Marchers call for fighting racism "with the fist."

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung

Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
