

Richard, as a scholar, you should not multiply content that purposely misinterprets for the sake of advancing your cause.

Case in point, your citation of John Clark's essay this week (Oct 10, 2017), and John's essay itself. John cherry picks a couple of Mrs. Eu's sentences that make True Mother look bad, and fails to present the context, in which Mrs. Eu praises True Mother and tells us that we go to True Father through True Mother.

This is an amazingly rich passage, and John's citation does such a disservice to Mrs. Eu and to the members who read your publicity. John, and you, really should publish an apology to Mrs. Eu.

Email from a UTS professor received on 10/10/2017

Greetings!

Since I believe in admitting my errors, in response to the above email from a UTS professor urging me to publish an apology, I have decided to do so.

My Apology to Mrs. Eu

Dear Mrs. Eu,

A UTS professor urged me to publish an apology for sending out an email that "purposely misinterprets" and "cherry picks" from your description of Hak Ja Han in your book *A Testimony to God's Word in Regard to Divine Principle* (selection printed below). I have decided to do so.

First, in your description, you stated "Mother is educated by our great Father," and "I witnessed Father educating Mother about the providence of God very seriously. Father said that, in hindsight, educating Mother was most the difficult thing. His ordeals of receiving tortures were easy compared to the pain he had to endure while teaching Mother."

I would like to apologize for not acknowledging your courage in pointing out MOTHER HAN WAS EDUCATED BY TRUE FATHER, SOMETHING THAT NO UTS PROFESSOR or FFWPU LEADER IS CURRENTLY WILLING TO ADMIT in the face of Hak Ja Han's denials that she received any education from True Father.

Second, I would like to apologize for not acknowledging your courage in pointing out that the TRUE NATURE OF THE RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN TRUE FATHER AND HAK JA HAN WAS THAT OF SUBJECT AND OBJECT, or as you describe it,

"Father was God's masterpiece and in turn Mother was Father's masterpiece. So if Father is the sun, Mother is the moon."

You go on to state that, "We can't look straight into the sun. However, we can look straight into the moon. When it's a full moon, looking at the moon brings us joy and a sense of refreshment. That is why, if we are to go to God, we must go to Father through Mother, and then to God through Father."

I am sorry to report that Mother Han no longer leads members to True

Father. Hak Ja Han seldom mentions True Father in her speeches after his Seonghwa. When she does manage to mention his name, it is often to point out that while he was born with sin, she was born sinless.

In her recent speech at Madison Square Garden, she stated that the UN Forces under General MacArthur came to Korea in 1950 to save her as the Only Begotten Daughter. It is shocking that nowhere did she mention that Father was in the Hung Nam death camp at the time. Even now the Family Fed is using precious church funds raised through the blood, sweat and tears of brothers and sisters to create a Museum, where Hak Ja Han's "Only Begotten Daughter" Fake News version of history will be taught to future generations.

Of course, as you know, Hak Ja Han now claims equal authority to reverse Father's providential decisions, to alter and censor the 8 great textbooks that Father said never to change, and to fire the son that True Father chose as his successor in 2008 and crowned three times in 2009. Hak Ja Han has given no explanation regarding why she suddenly fired Hyung Jin Nim from all of his positions within a few months of Father's passing to spirit world, but it appears that she did so because he, as a filial son to his father, would not go along with her OBD agenda.

Thank you for saying what all the UTS professors and FFWPU leaders are afraid to say. Of course, the sad truth is that statements that would now need courage to state, were simply common knowledge even just five years ago, before the Han Mother rewrote our Unification history.

Mrs. Eu, you'll be happy to know that, through God's grace, we now have a True Mother, Hyun Shil Kang, whose every word is to testify to True Father's faith, courage and love for God. Father is no longer alone!

Sincerely,
Richard Panzer

Gil Ja Sa Eu on Mother Han

Mother was 17 years old when she wedded Father. She was very young, wasn't she? I served Mother, too, when I was serving Ye Jin Nim and Hyo Jin Nim. Mother was so spiritually bright that she was able to reduce a topic that couldn't summarize in ten words into just one word. When she did, I couldn't find anything wrong with her conclusion.

Mother is such a great person. Moreover, Mother is educated by our great Father and she has something that we cannot even imagine. Her greatness can be attributed to the efforts of Dae Mo Nim. Mother stands upon Dae Mo Nim's foundation of faith.

Mother told me recently, "Hey, you know, Father, he keeps calling me, 'My half, my half.'" That's really true. Father can try everything possible to become perfect but he is only a half person without Mother, right? Mother now stands on the equal position as Father. Many times after the Holy Marriage, I witnessed Father educating Mother about the providence of God very seriously. Father said that, in hindsight, educating Mother was most the difficult thing. His ordeals of receiving tortures were easy compared to the pain he had to endure while teaching Mother.

Father said that he would have said "Sorry, I can't." when God told him "You take the responsibility of fulfilling the mission of Messiah!" had he known that the Messiah, or the Perfected Adam, had to find a woman and raise her to become the perfected Eve, and that the task was so difficult. However, Father took the responsibility without knowing about it and God thoroughly educated Father in self-denial.

Father said "That alone was difficult enough but I had to perfect Mother on top of that. It was very hard. How could I express it all with words?" Father was God's masterpiece and in turn Mother was Father's masterpiece. So if Father is the sun, Mother is the moon. We can't look straight into the sun. However, we can look straight into the moon. When it's a full moon, looking at the moon brings us joy and a sense of refreshment. That is why, if we are to go to God, we must go to Father through Mother, and then to God through Father. We can't go straight to Father. That is how precious and close to us our Mother is." ### Father's Suffering Ends in Joy

by John Clark

When we think of Father's suffering life we usually think of his many prison tortures. Father is the only person I have heard of who escaped from prison by being thrown out as garbage because his experienced torturers knew he would surely die. Father was tortured by the Japanese, the North Koreans and the South Koreans. He was imprisoned in Danbury, Connecticut when he was in his sixties.

Father says his prison tortures were just tiny potatoes compared to what he went through with Hak Ja Han. In Mrs. Gil Sa Ja's book, "A Testimony to God's Word", Father is quoted on page 268 as saying that his many tortures were easy to endure compared to the suffering he experienced in raising Hak Ja Han. He even said he would have refused the messianic mission if he had known how much he would suffer with her.

I Cannot Forget True Father's Praying Voice, Even Now Hyun Shil Kang, August 2014

In 1953, the early days of our church, True Father would often ask me to wet a handkerchief and pass it to him at three in the morning. After dipping the handkerchief in hot water and passing it to True Father, he would wipe his face with it and go to pray. I cannot forget his praying voice even now.

You cannot imagine how cold it was in those days. Yet, Father covered himself with only a light blanket and prayed. I could hear him say, "Father!" and feel the different circumstances and the substance of what True Father alone knew hidden within his voice. He cried so much as he prayed.

"I will realize your will at all cost one day and build a world where all people can truly live well." With this heart, he prayed, and this is what he promised God.

He lived in an awful room that was almost collapsing within a very poor neighborhood in Daegu. A woman that sold vegetables for a living in a market, which helped her get by one day at a time, owned the house. Those were days when many others had evicted Father. Despite such circumstances, people would hear his tearful voice early in the morning saying, "Father!" He was so shook up that his voice did not come out clearly. Father would cry bitterly, saying, "Father, I had promised to achieve this by this time, and then..." in his prayer.

As I watched True Father going through all that, I often thought, "How great it would be if many talented people joined the church and worked for God's will!" In his prayer,

True Father received revelations from God and Father promised, "I will follow this path." Not only did his voice contain the promise that he had made, but also his life in prison and many other things expressed this. Even now, I can still vividly hear True Father's voice, saying "Father!" with a heart containing all this background. I cannot forget how True Father would call, "Father," while getting choked up in the process and not knowing what to do during his prayers.

Memory of His Voice Strengthens Me

Later, whenever I faced a difficult situation, whenever something that was hard to bear loomed, True Father's praying voice would often play in my ears. I thought, "Think of everything that had to be done for God's will to be realized and to have the Unification Church of today." Whenever I thought of that, the feeling of increasing determination to fulfill my responsibilities at all cost would overwhelm my heart. These days, I cannot even properly walk; however, if there were a way I could restore my lost health, I would do anything I could. I feel determination. These days, I am doing all kinds of things to restore my lost health, thinking, "I should do anything to become healthier and to testify about True Father as much as I can." The only things that occupy my mind are becoming healthier and testifying about True Father within my small capacity. I do not know how much of my life remains. I hope to fulfill my responsibilities to the point that I have realized all of True Parents' expectations of me so that they are not disappointed.

The Right Time to Rest

After following True Parents for thirteen years, Father told me, "Just work for three more years and then rest for a while." However, three years passed and the fourth year was nearly over, but True Father had said nothing. So I said to him, "You told me to rest after three years; now it is almost the end of the fourth year." True Father responded, "People who have nothing to do are the most unfortunate people in the world. So as long as your health allows it, please continue to work; not only will you be happier working, but our Unification Church will improve; so let us continue to work!" With this, I could resolve the problem. Such things happened.

When following the way of God's will, one cannot advance when one is self-centered. One should be able to move with the heart desiring to have only God and True Parents within! You cannot follow this path if you try to do things by yourself. When I no longer see those talented people among the people connected with our church, I often assume, "That is because they became self-centered. Greed became their motivation. They left because they became self-centered!" Then I would think and worry a lot, "What if my heart also changes?"

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
