

Let the nations be aroused and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat. For there I will sit to judge all the surrounding nations. Put in the sickle, for the harvest is ripe. Come, tread, for the wine press is full. The vats overflow, for their wickedness is great. Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! For the day of the Lord is near in the valley of decision. The sun and the moon grow dark and the stars lose their brightness. The Lord roars from Zion and utters His voice from Jerusalem and the heavens and the earth tremble. But the Lord is a refuge for His people and a stronghold to the sons of Israel.

Then you will know that I am the Lord your God. Dwelling in Zion, My holy mountain. So Jerusalem will be holy, and strangers will pass through it no more. Joel 3:12-17

Filial sons and daughters must fulfill their filial duty while their parents are alive. Loyalty must also be fulfilled when the king is alive. It is no use at all trying to fulfill your filial duty after your parents have died. Loyalty is of no use at all when the king is dead. People who try to do this are deceitful. Rather than making a big memorial service for your parents after they die, it is much better to say even one good thing to comfort them while they are alive. It is much more beautiful to become a partner in their sadness and try to comfort their hearts while they are alive, rather than setting up a service with thousands of kinds of food for them after they die. It is much more precious to fulfill your filial duty before your parents die, rather than just cherish their memory. CSG 2189

The Sanctuary Service began with a heartfelt prayer for veterans by Chief Burke, who was in a special force that became the well-known Army's Green Berets. Hyung Jin Nim then showed the entire interview with Elizabeth Vargas from the Arts and Entertainment channel that will be included in an episode on the Unification Sanctuary as part of its series on "Cults and Extreme Beliefs." I think you'll be impressed with Hyung Jin Nim's thoughtful answers to her many challenging and sometimes hostile questions.

Sunday Service - May 27, 2018 - Unification Sanctuary, Newfoundland PA

Even though the A&E will likely not show much of the interview in order to focus on critics and ex-members to make Sanctuary look as horrific as possible, conservatives on the right will understand our powerful biblical message about sovereignty and the decentralized, upside-down kingdom of Kings and Queens jointly ruling with Christ. We will post the entire interview online so that people can compare it with the edited version broadcast on A&E.

Many Christians know this is the Last Days, but don't know where the Lord of the Second Advent is. They will be surprised to learn that biblical passages they've ignored point to a Second Coming of Christ (JCC2) that brings God's Kingdom on earth, as it is in Heaven.

The Washington Post released both a video and a lengthy magazine article about the Unification Sanctuary called "Locked and Loaded for the Lord."

Locked and Loaded for the Lord

After the Rev. Moon died in 2012, his church split apart. Two of his sons established a new congregation. Their followers are eagerly awaiting the end times. And they are armed.

While the article definitely focuses on the sensational, it does introduce readers to the perspectives of Hyung Jin Nim, Kook Jin Nim, Peace Police Peace Militia training and to several thoughtful Sanctuary brothers and sisters including Gideon Raucci, Kyle Toffey, Regis and Nancy Hanna. Remarkably, the article includes many positive comments and even calls the Constitution of the United States of Cheon Il Guk "a powerful document!"

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
