

Now the whole earth had one language and few words. And as men migrated from the east, they found a plain in the land of Shinar and settled there. And they said to one another, "Come, let us make bricks, and burn them thoroughly." And they had brick for stone, and bitumen for mortar. Then they said, "Come, let us build ourselves a city, and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves, lest we be scattered abroad upon the face of the whole earth." And the Lord came down to see the city and the tower, which the sons of men had built. And the Lord said, "Behold, they are one people, and they have all one language; and this is only the beginning of what they will do; and nothing that they propose to do will now be impossible for them. Come, let us go down, and there confuse their language, that they may not understand one another's speech." So the Lord scattered them abroad from there over the face of all the earth, and they left off building the city. Therefore its name was called Babel, because there the Lord confused the language of all the earth; and from there the Lord scattered them abroad over the face of all the earth. Genesis 11:1-9

The spiritual world is connected with the physical world. The common factor connecting all things is true love. SMM, "Where the Cosmos is Going?" 12/18/1985

Greetings!

At Sunday's service, Hyung Jin Nim invited Chief Tom Burke to give a Veterans Day Tribute. Chief Burke was healed from his tumor and heart attack several months ago after being prayed over at Sanctuary. He heard True Father speak at Madison Square Garden in 1974. At the time he asked his brother who served in Korea why Sun Myung Moon seemed very angry. His brother said that was the way Koreans made a point.

No veteran does it alone. The whole family is involved. All his older brothers enlisted to fight in WW2. The women were working in the factories. He showed photos and paintings of the farm he grew up in and the field he plowed as a 12 year old boy because all the men had joined the army. Telegrams started coming to families in the town: "we're sorry to inform you that your son was killed at ____."

One day his mother received a telegram regarding his brother who had been killed in Hamburg, Germany. The mailman stopped delivering because his only son had also been killed.

Then Hyung Jin Nim introduced Pastor George Cook from the Nehemiah Center, whom he met at an NRA show. Pastor Cook explained that, "When a pastor receives a message, it's a burden." Every minister needs to answer the question, "What is my spiritual authority to dare to teach in the name of God?" His answer: I am here because God saved me. I am here because a lot of good people prayed for me, a biker who thought his mother was going to heaven and he would never see her again because he was going to hell.

Sunday Service - November 11, 2018

He gave a book to Hyung Jin Nim from his own childhood, "Out with Gun and Camera" by William Stratemeyer aka Captain Ralph Bonehill. Pastor Cook longs for a time when he could give a 14 year-old boy a rifle and could go out hunting for a summer. He sang a song about his mother's Bible, which is no longer covered with dust.

He discussed the meaning of the passage in Genesis 11 where the people of the earth decide to build a tower to glorify themselves and God makes it impossible for them to speak to one another because they now all have different languages. The word "Babel" means "confusion." Our modern world is saturated by Babel's ungodly pride. We are commanded in the book of Revelation to come out of Babylon.

And he called out with a mighty voice, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! It has become a dwelling place of demons, a haunt of every foul spirit, a haunt of every foul and hateful bird; For all nations have drunk the wine of her impure passion, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth have grown rich with the wealth of her wantonness." Then I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Come out of her, my people, lest you take part in her sins, lest you share in her plagues; for her sins are heaped high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. Rev. 18:2-5

We have been given the gift of technology to undo the curse of Babylon by sharing the one language of the Gospel. Our common language should be that of love. We are commanded to love one another, as explained by True Father Sun Myung Moon, "The spiritual world is connected with the physical world. The common factor connecting all things is true love."

Jesus' suffering did not start on the cross. Our God walked with us and
chose to be with us.
Not Sunday morning love where we judge each other the rest of the week.

He explained how he was fired from his first Presbyterian church pastor job because he was too enthusiastic about the Gospel.

He told a woman who had an aggressive case of brain cancer, "I don't have faith in the doctor's report of cancer or heart disease. I have faith in the Holy Spirit and in the words of Jesus." She was also told she would never have children due to chemo. He prayed over and anointed her. Now she is cured and the mother of a 2 year old son!

Afterwards Pastor Cook, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim prayed over dozens of brothers and sisters from the U.S., Japan and Korea who came up for physical and spiritual healing.

AFTER MY BORN AGAIN EXPERIENCE

by Marcus Rennie

I have undergone an experience of being born again. Yet I still sin and knowingly bring shame through my actions.

Now I have heard of some Christians not meeting the Lord when they pass on. At the moment I find myself fearful, in my heart I feel I ought to do certain activities, such as fundraise, as well as walk in the spirit, heal the sick, share the Gospel, but I am a shy introverted person when it comes to approaching people on the street.

I fear what others think of me, if I were to ask a stranger whether I can pray for them to be healed.

All this being said, I wonder if I continue in this way, then I shall stand in front of a judge who shall say despite my knowing Christ and his Second Advent, that I shall have to be trapped in a low spiritual state because of my cowardice and retreating from manifesting Christ's behavior as my own.

INDEMNITY IS UNSEEING EVIL

Alexander Gaigg

1 Peter 5:10 (KJV) - But the God of all grace, who hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle you.

Suffering is never caused by God since God is the Cause of man and He created us out of joy. His intention was for us to return joy, always. To suffer, then, is to interact with the inherited sin of our ancestors, or collective, or personal. It is by the grace of True Father, that we can be rid of the Original Sin. We engraft onto his lineage so that we may be able to disconnect from the rest of the sins as well. These sins that we deal with is our suffering. This has been caused by Satan, the first instigator of all that was not good.

Because Christ knows of our situation better than ourselves, we are put through tests to overcome the sins we hold to ourselves and let them go. These trials are put on a time basis of days, weeks, months or years. The time period is necessary for you to overcome the sense of time. God always exists now. You were created to exist now with Him, too. Each time you are tried you are letting go of what is not connected to God. To do this, you need Christ to help you, who has overcome all tests and trials. This is how your Foundation of Faith is set.

BRITAIN IN REVOLT

Marie Koh

As Great Britain battles for independence from the European Union, which plunged the UK into endless covert wars in the Middle East after 9-11, thousands of soldiers are left destitute upon returning home from war.

The rising number of unusual deaths in the British Armed Forces and the Navy is astounding. It is believed that 49 servicemen and women have committed suicide this year.

The Ministry of Defense (MoD) reveals a staggering 400 ex-military personnel suicides between 1995 and 2014, and from 1998 - 2017, 309 suicides occurred among UK regular Armed Forces personnel, 292 among men and 17 among women.

The British Government has not been consistent in recording the deaths of ex-servicemen and women once they leave the Army so the numbers could in fact be a great deal higher.

Han mother turns the children away from their Father

Hak Ja Han's deceptive events targeting Christians

"Since humankind has received satanic blood, people cannot return to God on their own. So the Messiah must accomplish absolute restoration of the lineage, renewing the bloodline that was defiled by Satan. This transition must be made. This is why the Messiah must surely come."

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
