

Then Job replied: "Even today my complaint is bitter; his hand is heavy in spite of my groaning. If only I knew where to find him; if only I could go to his dwelling! I would state my case before him and fill my mouth with arguments. I would find out what he would answer me, and consider what he would say to me. Would he vigorously oppose me? No, he would not press charges against me. There the upright can establish their innocence before him, and there I would be delivered forever from my judge. "But if I go to the east, he is not there; if I go to the west, I do not find him. When he is at work in the north, I do not see him; when he turns to the south, I catch no glimpse of him. But he knows the way that I take; when he has tested me, I will come forth as gold. My feet have closely followed his steps; I have kept to his way without turning aside. I have not departed from the commands of his lips; I have treasured the words of his mouth more than my daily bread. "But he stands alone, and who can oppose him? He does whatever he pleases. He carries out his decree against me, and many such plans he still has in store. That is why I am terrified before him; when I think of all this, I fear him. God has made my heart faint; the Almighty has terrified me. Yet I am not silenced by the darkness, by the thick darkness that covers my face. Job 23:1-17

Freedom is not that valuable without love. Freedom is undoubtedly important and everyone wants to have it-yet without love, it is not great. Why is it so? That is because without love, its power cannot continue forever. It is limited, in other words. Without love, freedom will not last. It will change into something else. It may be good when you first get it, but after a while, you get tired of it. You don't want to be in it anymore. It is not eternal and unchanging. Power without love, money without love, anything without love is not that great-even freedom. Reverend Sun Myung Moon, "The Pride Of The Unification Church," December 10, 1989

Greetings!

Hyung Jin Nim started the service by talking about the riots in Paris and protests by 2 million French citizens. These were in response to the government's mandated rise in gas prices, already twice those of gasoline in many U.S. states, to discourage the use of carbon-based fuels blamed for causing "global warming." The "Yellow Vest" demonstrations are one more example of the rise of populist, sovereignty-based movements in Europe opposing the imposition of edicts and taxes that citizens have no control over. How would you oppose that? 89,000 policemen had to be deployed. Seventeen thousand yellow jacket protesters were arrested, but that will not stop their desire for freedom. Nations are being shaken. Consider that this is France, not some third world country!

He showed photos of combat veterans at the Vetstock award ceremony where an award was given to Kook Jin Nim, who said "if it wasn't for you (veterans), Gen. Douglas Mac Arthur and the U.S. soldiers in Korea, who saved my father's life in a Communist death camp, I wouldn't be alive." Veterans really understand the value of the 2nd Amendment, which can take down a tyranny or defend a nation. It is sometimes natural to struggle about all the opposition, but God is working on the hearts of people. Those who attended the Support Trump GOA Benefit banquet last year were persecuted, but came to accept and even defend Hyung Jin Nim. We need their support. We cannot be safe as an isolated community.

Sunday Service - December 9, 2018 - Rev. Hyung Jin Moon Unification Sanctuary, Newfoundland PA

Every believer goes through ups and downs, questioning God like Job did. Sometimes it's hard to believe when the whole world is against you. Job knows what God will say, "Trust and believe!" but he still wants to argue with God.

On Saturday, Hyung Jin Nim and Yeonah Nim were traveling early in the morning to New Jersey for Jui Jitsu training, Yeonah Nim saw 6 boxes of ammo from target practice lying on the floor of the car. If the car were stopped and the ammunition discovered it could have led to being arrested and being convicted and even sent to prison. He began to question why he is doing such a disruptive ministry to tyrannical government. The reality is that his whole family is endangered.

How many gun-owners would stand up to support if the government forces came to the Palace? Only 3% stood up during the Revolutionary War. In other countries, this kind of message would be even more dangerous for its advocates.

We are perhaps the only church in the world that is outspoken in giving a biblically-based message for local empowerment and self-defense for all people throughout the world. It's no accident that it came through a son of Rev. Moon.

He and Yeonah Nim turned around and returned to Pennsylvania. They went to Walmart, where they ran into someone, an "angel" from Connecticut, who said that he'd bought the Rod of Iron Kingdom book. "Rev. Moon, I love that book! I'm going to come to your next festival. Your vision is amazing!"

He and Yeonah Nim were in tears, feeling "God just gave us a miracle." What a blessing. God sent that man to give us a word! Hyung Jin Nim realized that when God gives a promise, He keeps it!

If Hilary Clinton or someone like her who are rabidly against the 2nd Amendment takes power, we could be targeted. Our lives could be endangered, just like the Founding Fathers.

He invited Shigeru Tashiro to share his testimony about attending the "Surge" Revival at the River Church in Tampa. Shigeru spoke about his struggles between his secular self and faith self. He started shaking, but then he shouted out "True Father" and felt peaceful. He shouted again and felt more peaceful. He was escorted out of the room. Finally he told the representative, "True Father is the Second Coming."

His wife, Lee Kyeong, also shared her testimony. The first three days she was negative and then realized that she was not hungry enough for an experience with God. She repented from her heart, not just her head.

Hyung Jin Nim spoke about the importance of sharing our testimonies. That doesn't mean that we are perfect. It's giving a gift to other people.

Kayeong Raucci also spoke. She was feeling angry at her husband. Finally she hugged her husband and shed tears, realizing that not only was she hurting her husband's feelings but also God's! She felt free and began to have Holy Spirit experiences of laughing and speaking in tongues. She couldn't move her body and felt so much joy.

Misha Panzer had a wonderful experience even though she has been struggling since then. She felt waves of laughter coming from her belly and released from a lot of pain. She could feel so much of God's joy.

Hyung Jin Nim suggests keeping a spiritual journal. We are historical people, whether we realize it or not. Yeonah Nim created a prayer room where she has prayer lists and lists of answered prayers.

It's important to reminisce and remember the goodness of God, the victories. We gained from attending the River Church's revival and now they are receiving firearms training.

Hyung Jin Nim has been praying for God to work, but also struggling sometimes with the pressure. Many times we fear God because we don't want to expose our inner vulnerability. We want the blessing of God, but we also fear it. When we show our vulnerability, people trust us more. If we can't be honest and real, that becomes a burden we carry around.

The Peace Police Peace Militia is not about hurting others or showing our power, it's about repenting before the Lord, and protecting others. The motive is critical. For example we don't just look at the facts of a crime, but look at the intent. A mother who steals food to feed her starving children is different from someone who steals to buy drugs or to become rich.

God has given us many gifts, but we are often afraid to release them. If you hate someone, you should be praying for them. Be ready to defend them, just like Christ.

HJN says he doesn't always feel God's presence with him. Like Job, he asks questions even though he already knows the answer -- to trust in God. If Heavenly Father could turn around Paul (Acts 7), who was a murderer of Christians and present at the stoning of Stephen, He can turn enemies into supporters. In difficulties, we can look forward to God's grace and miraculous intervention.

The EU's War Against the Christian UK

by Marie Koh

The twenty first century has been brutal for Christians around the world, particularly in Africa and the Middle East. However, despite extreme persecution in these politically charged times, Christianity's flames of hope and revival are igniting once again across the world.

England is now recognizing her Christian heritage, once again refusing to accept the EU as their political representative which promotes Islam and the Koran over Christian values. Unfortunately, many have paid a heavy price for standing up for their beliefs and their free speech, facing hefty fines and even jail time. Patriots who have fought in recent wars for this government, but defend England's independence from the EU have been treated like terrorists and even required to give a mobility inventory to the police every week recording their every move. This is happening to British citizens all over the country. Some have been beaten down by the police, threatened, and interrogated; they go after you and the families, friends, neighbors, cousins, aunts and uncles, the grandparents and your friends at work. They try to defame you, demonetize, isolate you and destroy your business if you have one.

Rob and Gaia Carvell announced the release of 'From the Cross to the Crown and Beyond', the first book in the Gospel Family Trilogy, in October of 2018.

The second book, 'He Has Come again with a New Name' is now available, completing the Trilogy as a wonderful Christmas present for family and friends.

The trilogy explains the purpose of the Messiah, and the extent of salvation through the cross; how the second coming (with a new name, Rev3:12) has taken place; the accomplishments of the Lord at His second coming; and government and lifestyle in the new Kingdom.

"Since humankind has received satanic blood, people cannot return to God on their own. So the Messiah must accomplish absolute restoration of the lineage, renewing the bloodline that was defiled by Satan. This transition must be made. This is why the Messiah must surely come."

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
