

King Saul threatening David

And it came to pass, when Saul was returned from following the Philistines, that it was told him, saying, Behold, David is in the wilderness of Engedi. 2 Then Saul took three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seek David and his men upon the rocks of the wild goats. 3 And he came to the sheepcotes by the way, where was a cave; and Saul went in to cover his feet: and David and his men remained in the sides of the cave. 4 And the men of David said unto him, Behold the day of which the Lord said unto thee, Behold, I will deliver thine enemy into thine hand, that thou mayest do to him as it shall seem good unto thee. Then David arose, and cut off the skirt of Saul's robe privily.

5 And it came to pass afterward, that David's heart smote him, because he had cut off Saul's skirt. 6 And he said unto his men, The Lord forbid that I should do this thing unto my master, the Lord's anointed, to stretch forth mine hand against him, seeing he is the anointed of the Lord. 7 So David stayed his servants with these words, and suffered them not to rise against Saul. But Saul rose up out of the cave, and went on his way. 8 David also arose afterward, and went out of the cave, and cried after Saul, saying, My lord the king. And when Saul looked behind him, David stooped with his face to the earth, and bowed himself.

9 And David said to Saul, Wherefore hearest thou men's words, saying, Behold, David seeketh thy hurt? 10 Behold, this day thine eyes have seen how that the Lord had delivered thee to day into mine hand in the cave: and some bade me kill thee: but mine eye spared thee; and I said, I will not put forth mine hand against my lord; for he is the Lord's anointed. 11 Moreover, my father, see, yea, see the skirt of thy robe in my hand: for in that I cut off the skirt of thy robe, and killed thee not, know thou and see that there is neither evil nor transgression in mine hand, and I have not sinned against thee; yet thou huntest my soul to take it. 12 The Lord judge between me and thee, and the Lord avenge me of thee: but mine hand shall not be upon thee. 1 Samuel 24: 1-12

I have fought strenuously throughout my life, with Satan using every means to block the way. Blessed families are different from non-blessed families. You received the Blessing in the midst of Satan's environment. He fought to prevent it and you went through persecution, even leaving your families and nation. In the midst of these adverse circumstances, the Unification Church has expanded to the worldwide level centering on the blessed family.

Then where are the families and members of the Unification Church going? The nation in which we live is not the original nation. Therefore we are pursuing the heavenly nation where God can govern a people united in one direction. SMM, God's Day Midnight Speech, December 31, 1990

Greetings!

In Sunday's service followed by a beautiful Blessing ceremony for 6 couples from Korea, Japan, Germany and the U.S. (see below, Hyung Jin Nim discussed how if not for the U.S. troops fighting in the bitter cold to liberate Inchon and the southern half of Korea from the Communists, True Father would not survived and his children would not exist!

American citizens are so blessed to have freedom and the 2nd amendment. Koreans do not have this right, the same power as Kings and Queens who in many countries were the only ones who had the could control the use of weapons. The young people in Sanctuary are learning the ethics of firearms and safety, to be shepherds. Contrary to what the media often reports, crime rates drop when civilians carry firearms.

Hyung Jin Nim also discussed the Book of Samuel's account of how David responded to King Saul's growing jealousy. David's stature had been rising through many victorious battles. David had to flee into the wilderness when 3,000 soldiers were sent by Saul to kill him. In the incident described in 1 Samuel 24, David had the chance to kill Saul and seize the throne, but he declined to do so, showing the kind of self-control and forbearance citizens of the Kingdom need to learn.

Hyung Jin Nim also had to practice forbearance when he understood the Han Mother's plans to change Father's legacy and to center the church on herself. He could have simply tried to take control of resources or to keep silent as many church leaders advised. He wept on his mother's lap, saying "You know True Father's wishes. Please don't go down this road!" She told him that she was God and became angry that he and Kook Jin Nim would not support her actions.

He was still head of many organizations at the time. He could have gone along with this and kept his positions and resources. But he just could not go along with it. They kicked him off of different boards. Amazing what money and power do to people! They used to say they loved him, but now they wouldn't even look at him.

Worldwide totalitarianism would be a kingdom of hell, but the Bible says we will be co-heirs of Christ. As it says in Romans 8:14-17,

*"For as many as are led by the Spirit of God,
they are the sons of God.
15 For ye have not received the spirit of* bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. 16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God: 17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together."

Every king's coat of arms has a crown and a weapon (sword). The question for every nation is: who will rule- a wolf or a shepherd? Christ's kingdom puts fear into the predator class. Hyung Jin Nim expressed gratitude to Maj Toure, the founder of Black Guns Matter in Philadelphia who trains citizens in self-defense. When Maj Toure appeared on The King's Report, Hyung Jin Nim told him "Black Kings Matter." If citizens are armed, they are no longer afraid. They will always outnumber the predators. It's incredible that God gives us the freedom to love or hate Him, of course with the attending consequences of our own choices.

Do you believe you are kings and queens? Not just in a costume party kind of way? In the Book of Psalms it states:

I will declare the decree: the Lord hath said unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. 8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. 9 Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. Psalm 2:7-9

The concept of property rights comes from scripture. New Age philosophy says you cannot own Mother Earth and says you are wicked if you want to own property, but the earth is not a deity. God created the earth for man to inherit. Not to exploit, but to use responsibly.

In Korea, "Green Belt" zones using confiscated private land have been established by the government, but then used for $5 billion solar power plants with Chinese companies that made several elites very rich. Every single king claims land. In Asia if they declare an "emergency" then they can take your land or property.

True Father once told him, if someone went against the North Korean government, even 5 year-olds were forced to come out to watch their public execution. Even now in 2018 "our relatives" in North Korea still have to live like that. This is a reality for hundreds of millions of people living in totalitarian countries.

The coming of God's Kingdom will not be by magic, it will be a scary, even violent, time. But God promises us the possession of the earth. Whether we truly believe that will determine if His promise is realized in our lives.

Remembering True Father during a Winter Snowfall

by Ena Moon

Yesterday I stood at the train station it started to snow, the last few days, my feelings have turned into to True Father, and I was so overcome with loneliness and abandonment, and I cried. I remembered that Father always tried to comfort God's heart during his lifetime, I saw the snowflakes in front of me and recognized them as tears from God and Father.

But our human hearts are so cold and those tears freeze. Lately I feel True Father is living in a very sad, meditative phase, reflecting on the past and recognizing that many never understood his heart. He has no base to influence anything in the church. Mother sees only her own point of view. She lived in her own emotional world. The last time Father did not say much anymore because they did not understand him anyway. His children are considered as failures. Many blessed families have the conviction that their own children are better than Father's.

When I think of Father, my heart becomes so heavy because he is so misunderstood as God in the past Who can free his soul?

I had a spiritual awakening, and so much insight in a short time, I am completely speechless because the reality we face is incredibly serious and the church's behavior requires an incredible change. In relation to the Han Mother I would have expected a little more wisdom from members. Restoration is also a dirty thing. Lucifer has created a messed up humanity. The human perspective and the divine perspective are quite different and there are big misunderstandings.

How can she degrade True Father and take away from him the position of the Messiah? In her eyes, Father is to blame. The Han Mother did not recognize the value of the Messiah in decisive phases.

Rescuing the Bloodline has an important place in God's Hierarchy. The separation of good and evil has top priority.

God has a very different viewpoint than we do. The naivety and ignorance of members bring down all of Father's life's work.

Hyung Jin has to go a completely new way to protect his bloodline. He thought this is his job and responsibility. The FFWPU is only complaining,

We see Mother's rejection of Father, but she says she is "one" with Father. Which game is that? With all these actions, it is a tragic reality that God's heart has been abandoned again, with consequences that will last for long time. The dream of an ideal woman who serves the true Messiah forever is over. Please bring True Father into your hearts for next year. Greetings Ena

The EU's War Against the Christian UK

by Marie Koh

The twenty first century has been brutal for Christians around the world, particularly in Africa and the Middle East. However, despite extreme persecution in these politically charged times, Christianity's flames of hope and revival are igniting once again across the world.

England is now recognizing her Christian heritage, once again refusing to accept the EU as their political representative which promotes Islam and the Koran over Christian values. Unfortunately, many have paid a heavy price for standing up for their beliefs and their free speech, facing hefty fines and even jail time. Patriots who have fought in recent wars for this government, but defend England's independence from the EU have been treated like terrorists and even required to give a mobility inventory to the police every week recording their every move. This is happening to British citizens all over the country. Some have been beaten down by the police, threatened, and interrogated; they go after you and the families, friends, neighbors, cousins, aunts and uncles, the grandparents and your friends at work. They try to defame you, demonetize, isolate you and destroy your business if you have one.

Rob and Gaia Carvell announced the release of 'From the Cross to the Crown and Beyond', the first book in the Gospel Family Trilogy, in October of 2018.

The second book, 'He Has Come again with a New Name' is now available, completing the Trilogy as a wonderful Christmas present for family and friends.

The trilogy explains the purpose of the Messiah, and the extent of salvation through the cross; how the second coming (with a new name, Rev3:12) has taken place; the accomplishments of the
