

What does it profit, my brethren, if someone says he has faith but does not have works? Can faith save him? If a brother or sister is naked and destitute of daily food, and one of you says to them, "Depart in peace, be warmed and filled," but you do not give them the things which are needed for the body, what does it profit? Thus also faith by itself, if it does not have works, is dead.

But someone will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works. You believe that there is one God. You do well. Even the demons believe-and tremble! But do you want to know, O foolish man, that faith without works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works when he offered Isaac his son on the altar? Do you see that faith was working together with his works, and by works faith was made perfect? And the Scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness." And he was called the friend of God. You see then that a man is justified by works, and not by faith only. Likewise, was not Rahab the harlot also justified by works when she received the messengers and sent them out another way? For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also. James 2:14-26

Adam was supposed to have the birthright, the parental rights, and the kingship. He was to settle, centering on God's love. The place of settlement is the originating place of kingship and that of parents. SMM, Three Great Subjects Thought and the Proclamation of True Parents

Greetings!

In Sunday' Service Hyung Jin Nim explained how he was struggling about wearing the bullet crown, but once he did so, all the heads turned towards to him, saying "that's the guy in that VICE documentary!" He realized that we must be bold. Jesus has made us kings and priests. That is where the concept of the Castle Doctrine, or the right to defend against an intruder to your home, comes from.

Sanctuary Church Sunday Service 05/05/2019

But James warned that we have responsibilities. Experiencing the Holy Ghost leads to repentance. With freedom comes responsibility. The founders of USA said only a moral people can be free. Adam and Eve were sinless but they were kicked out of the garden because of their failure to obey God's commandment. In Psalm 2 it is said "I rejoice in the law that God has given me."

James warned that we need to take care of orphans and widows. He taught people to be holy, and to abstain from fornication. You cannot enter the Kingdom of God if you persist in practicing sin.

Jesus himself was a blue collar worker, a carpenter. In Beatitudes he taught about responsibilities. The book of James validates the importance of lineage and freedom/responsibility. Lack of responsibility leads to hedonism and socialism, poverty and even genocide. Protestant work ethic.

Even in the American colonies, the law, directly directly quoted from Leviticus, was that if your spouse was sleeping with someone else, both would be killed.

It's true that faith is the beginning of salvation, but we need to learn to serve others and continue to train to be shepherds. This is not works salvation, but helping you to become more like Christ. To become perfect as God is perfect takes effort. Training is a critical part of our faith and practice.

Paul spoke about mysteries which could mislead some to gnostic beliefs and a radical and irresponsible "sola fidei" doctrine. Some modern churches in Korea allow singles dating, which often leads to unmarried sex. The modern dating culture has become a fornication culture.v

The God of the Bible has been forsaken. A church of lies unsuccessfully tries to cover up guilt resulting from sin. With freedom and power arising from that engender greater responsibility. You may have to sacrifice yourself for others. The Holy Spirit encourages us to become more like Christ, mature children who are more in His image.

God did not create the material world and the body to be evil. He said it was good. The Kingdom of God on earth will be holy, pure and good, which is why He created the institution of marriage.

Is God a man, a woman, or a genderless force that cannot be identified by masculine or feminine traits? Society offers a range of ideas, but what do religious texts have to say about this immutable characteristic of God? In the following video, Dennis Prager offers some thought-provoking answers.

THE FIRE AT NOTRE-DAME

by Hamish Robertson

The fire at Notre-Dame, 15th April, was the most shocking event to happen to France since the French government surrendered to Hitler and the evil, boastful power of Nazi Germany in 1940. General De Gaulle fled to London and raised the flag for Free France, France libre. He was not smiling, but he promised that France would become free again.

This time, as President Emmanuel Macron walked with his prime-minister, Edouard Philippe, towards the frightful conflagration, they were caught on video-film, smirking. The video can be seen on internet. The prime-minister was saying something behind his hand. The president was finding it difficult to suppress his smile. Macron, a while later, took on the role of saviour of France, and said that he would restore Notre Dame in five years. The French minister of the interior, Christophe Castanaer, explained that "Notre-Dame n'est pas une cathédrale, c'est notre commun," "Notre-Dame is not a cathedral, it is our common (asset)."

The first part of Castanaer's comment sounds ridiculous, but it is true. Notre-Dame does not belong to the Catholic Church. It has belonged to the French state since 1905, like other French cathedrals. The French state is officially non-religious. So from the point of view of the French government, Notre-Dame is not a "cathedral," a place of worship; it is just a common asset. The second part of his comment is typical government hypocrisy, claiming that state property belongs to the common people.

Petition for OPEN ACCESS to ALL Speeches of Sun Myung Moon

Please sign this petition for access to the original recordings of the publicly spoken words of the founder, who proclaimed in the final years of his life:

"I am leaving behind eight textbooks and teaching materials for humankind to use for all eternity. Altogether, these are published in almost a thousand volumes. These are textbooks you will have to read and study even after you go to the spirit world. They are not just teachings that come from the mind of one person; they are textbooks and teaching materials that teach the heavenly way that God has granted to His suffering children for their salvation."

It is important that we can listen to the original recording of his words!

Rob and Gaia Carvell announced the release of 'From the Cross to the Crown and Beyond', the first book in the Gospel Family Trilogy, in October of 2018.

The second book, 'He Has Come again with a New Name' is now available, completing the Trilogy as a wonderful present for family and friends.

The trilogy explains the purpose of the Messiah, and the extent of salvation through the cross; how the second coming (with a new name, Rev3:12) has taken place; the accomplishments of the Lord at His second coming; and government and lifestyle in the new Kingdom.

"Since humankind has received satanic blood, people cannot return to God on their own. So the Messiah must accomplish absolute restoration of the lineage, renewing the bloodline that was defiled by Satan. This transition must be made. This is why the Messiah must surely come."

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
