

While Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, a very great assembly of men, women, and children, gathered to him out of Israel, for the people wept bitterly. And Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, of the sons of Elam, addressed Ezra: "We have broken faith with our God and have married foreign women from the peoples of the land, but even now there is hope for Israel in spite of this. Therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all these wives and their children, according to the counsel of my lord and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God, and let it be done according to the Law. Arise, for it is your task, and we are with you; be strong and do it." Then Ezra arose and made the leading priests and Levites and all Israel take an oath that they would do as had been said. So they took the oath.

Ezra 10: 1-5

You must live with God in order to establish the victorious realm of dominion. Consequently, you can establish a victorious foundation only by having absolute conviction, and by leading your life united with God and attending Him. This is the path of restoration. SMM, CSG 994

We human beings, who were born from the spirit world, eventually return to that world. In Korea, we commonly use an interesting idiom in reference to death. When someone dies, we say, "he has returned." To where does he return? It is not to a cemetery. We mean that we return to the point of life's origin. We return across the vast expanses of history. In the process, we shed our nationality. We return to the world that brought forth the human ancestors. If a Creator exists, then we are returning to the world of the Creator. That is where we originated, so it is there that we finally return. SMM, 12/18/98

Greetings!

At the beginning of the Sunday Service, Hyung Jin Nim played a video from Pastor and Mrs. George Cook expressed their gratitude for their Blessing at the Unification Sanctuary last month.

Unification Sanctuary Sunday Service 06/16/2019

He discussed the Book of Ezra chapter 5's account of rebuilding the Temple with support from Cyrus, King of Persia. But after completing the Temple, they were disheartened to find that the power of God was not there. As recounted in Ezra 10, after reflection they realized that many Jewish men had married Babylonian women.

A similar example is Samson's pursuit of Philistine women, which led to his humiliation and downfall. Intermarriage with women who practice different religions dilutes the faith of the husbands and the next generations. Their tears of joy become tears for justice to purify their national sin. Ezra issued a national divorce edict that all of the men who had returned to Jerusalem must remove their Babylonian wives and children.

Hyung Jin Nim speaking at True Mother Kang's Wonjeon site

Hyung Jin Nim explained that this shows how serious it is to leave True Father's Authority. Ezra 10:18 lists those guilty of intermarriage who repented and divorced their wives. It's important to remember who we are in God's providence.

He also spoke about a recent youtube video from The Bible Project about "The Satan and Demons" which shows Adam and Eve wearing crowns. The video's creators must have been guided spiritually to portray the first ancestors in this way. Those under True Father's authority can understand that this refers to the perfected Adam and Eve, True Father Sun Myung Moon and True Mother Hyun Shil Kang.

Then he invited all of those at the service to go with him to the True Parents' Memorial and Wonjeon for True Mother Kang being constructed near the Kahr Arms property in Greeley, PA.

Open Letter to Adherents of the Substantial Word Group

Dear brothers and sisters,

I am John Raucci, and I have been with the Unification Sanctuary since 2015, and the Unification Church since 1974. I have come to know your activity from friendships that I have with a number of your adherents. I feel obligated to write this note, which in essence will be a reminder of something that Jesus taught us. That is, we should worship both in spirit and in truth.

I realize that you focus on one of Father's final speeches. And, by conveying that speech to others, you have moved many people. Father's words are very powerful. But, that speech, however significant, can by no means nullify the rest of what Father said or did.

All of his words and deeds are significant. Father may try to simplify things for us by bringing attention to this final speech, but his life is so much more than anything I've seen or heard. In light of that, Father has chosen a successor.

That successor also elevates Father's words, but does something more, from what I can tell. He conveys Father's spirit, and in so doing, brings a life to Father's words which serves to express their fundamental meaning and essence.

It's like with the Bible. We are left with Jesus' words, but often without the spirit by which he conveyed those words. Those of us who have been privileged to spend time with Father understand a little of his spirit, and can understand the words along with that sense of spirit that was acquired through experience with Father.

Jesus may have come as a shepherd, but when we think about the Second Coming, Christ comes a warrior. Just read the Book of Revelations to see if that's not true. Hyung Jin Nim is a warrior. It's not to say he's not loving and compassionate, but ultimately he stands strong against evil, and will fight it wherever it appears.

That's why he's so interested, especially in training young people, to be not only good husbands and wives, but to be defenders of the faith, and of the freedoms that come from God. Hyung Jin Nim is responsible for constructing the framework of the Kingdom, so he emphasizes new things, and people thus get confused about how closely he resembles Father. But, there's nothing in what Hyung Jin Nim says or does that is adverse to Father's words and deeds.

His spirit is remarkable, and his daily life as well. He can help us to really understand Father not only in truth, but in spirit as well. When Father selected Hyung Jin Nim as his successor, Father said he surpassed each of us in his faith, and in every other way. He called Hyung Jin Nim his "representative body." So, from Father's point of view, Hyung Jin Nim was the best one to convey Father's truth and Father's spirit. If we judge him while focusing on Father's words given in one final speech, we may not be looking at him the way Father was.

BBC "shocked, shaken, and disgusted" The MIRACLE in London!

by Alexander Mussett

President Trump's visit to the United Kingdom was not just a simple political event. In his speech at the welcoming banquet he opened it with the word God and closed it with the word God. I do believe we were visited by True Father!

William and I made a big banner (9 x 3.5 feet) to welcome him and took it to Buckingham Palace. God blessed us in a way I can hardly begin to share.

The main point was to create a different narrative than the media and the 'anti-Trumpers' who had a big demonstration the day before. There are many people in this country who approve of and like Trump but they have no voice, so the impression is that Britain hates him and that goes out on the media. We decided to give them a voice through our banner and Heavenly Father blessed us in a way that I can't even begin to say, it was overwhelming.

We were both interviewed by so many media outlets it was incredible. They were all over us: CBS/SKY/ABC/German National Radio/French National Radio and others I can't remember. Only the BBC refused to interview us. A senior BBC journalist turned up with a camera man to see what was going on. When he saw all these people celebrating Trump and having their photo taken with the banner, he was shocked, shaken, and disgusted. He didn't know what to do. He called his superiors. He was almost shaking. He said he couldn't understand what was happening. I said 'You see things are not what you think they are.' If I had been sharper I should have challenged him to interview me.

Hundreds of tourists took their photo with the banner, so it must be all over social media by now.

WHY Did Hyung Jin Nim Scold His Mother So Strongly?

By Jim Stephens

I want to share the answer to this question that came to me in prayer. You don't have to believe me, of course, but I highly recommend that you ask God yourself and see if you get an answer.

The explanation given by Family Fed leaders does not make sense if you think about it seriously.

What was the explanation that FFWPU members were told when Hyung Jin Nim was kicked out of the palace and all leadership positions and then again three years later when he started to seriously scold his mother and the church leadership? What led many members to negatively judge Hyung Jin Nim as a disloyal son and an immature person? They said he must be greedy for position, power and wealth. He must be overcome with resentment and anger.

Stop and think about it. He had already led the Korean church and worldwide movement for three years from 2009 when Father appointed him as his heir. Before that he had practiced Buddhist meditations for thousands of hours and had learned to control his body, his mind, and his emotions. He was a very high level practitioner of Brazilian Jiu Jitsu, one of the most lethal martial arts, requiring thousands and thousands of hours of training. We all witnessed his spiritual practices which included bowing 12,000 times in devotion to True Father's health.

Let's think about this seriously.

Was he angry? Was he lacking in maturity and needing to grow up?
Was he greedy for power? Had he been concealing hatred for his mother all these years?

It certainly might have appeared that he was angry and emotional in the "Breaking the Silence" video and the following sermons. But is that the full story? Was that all that was behind the whole thing? If you listen to the content of what he is saying, you'll understand a lot more.

Prior to this time, we in America had met him when he testified to True Father and the Seven Deaths and Resurrections. I think many of us felt hope that here was a True Child that we could follow as our leader. We recognized his sincerity and his love for True Father.

When True Father chose him and anointed him as his heir and crowned him three times on two continents, what did you feel? I was relieved and hopeful. True Father even declared that Hyung Jin Nim had the greatest faith of anyone in the Family Federation.

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
