

Kook Jin Nim on the Constitution of Cheon Il Guk

God's Guidance in THE CURRENT DARKNESS

Teach me, O Lord, the way of your statutes; and I will keep it to the end. Give me understanding, that I may keep your law and observe it with my whole heart. Lead me in the path of your commandments, for I delight in it. Incline my heart to your testimonies, and not to selfish gain! Turn my eyes from looking at worthless things; and give me life in your ways. Confirm to your servant your promise, that you may be feared. Turn away the reproach that I dread, for your rules are good. Behold, I long for your precepts; in your righteousness give me life! Psalm 119:33-40

In the Pyongyang prison, while Father was still being held awaiting trial, he encountered one man who had given testimony against him. This person did not want to greet Father, but Father spoke first, asking, "Don't you remember me?" Unable to avoid replying, the man said, "Yes, of course." Then he apologized and said he was sorry for what he had done, but that he had been under tremendous pressure from the communists to supply helpful testimony. He said that deep inside him, he had never wanted to do anything bad toward Father. Later that man brought food to Father.

Sometime after the trial, the judge who had sentenced Father visited the prison. How could Father find any worse enemy than this man? Knowing Father was there, the judge didn't want to see him, but Father walked toward him and greeted him. When the judge saw that Father forgave him, he apologized and said, "You have no reason to be here. I know you are totally innocent, but I had to give you a sentence because my superior ordered me to." Before leaving the prison, the judge brought much food to Father.

*These incidents give us a glimpse of what could take place under such a legal system. No one really believed that Father was a criminal, but Satan created a system that could impose an unjust process on him. Although he was innocent, he was given a totally unrealistic sentence. In prison, a person is called by number, not by his name. Father's number was 596, which in phonetic Korean means "sorrowful." Thus even Father's number represented God's sorrow and heartbreak. "Prison Life in Hungnam," Won Pil Kim, July 1983

Greetings!

Hyung Jin Nim started the service broadcast from Tennessee by reading 1 Corinthians chapter 14 in which Paul urges Christians to seek to prophesy more than speaking in tongues because it edifies the faithful. Jeremiah's and Ezekiel's prophecies of Jerusalem falling to Babylon took many decades before it took place as God was giving the leaders and people of Judah a chance to repent. In our time, we must hear, understand and heed God's warnings as well.

After True Father's passing, Hyung Jin Nim was weeping and urging Hak Ja Han not to uplift herself as an "Only Begotten Daughter" who "forgave" Father's "sin." The church's billions could have been spent for productive use instead of lawsuits and monuments. The Kingdom comes either through blessing or through tribulation. As a consequence of her rebellion, he had to receive rejection and ostracism in order to honor True Father and the truth.

Civilizations which worship a mother goddess will persecute alpha males, who are seen as a threat to the State. Boys need to be guided by a man. Obviously a mother can't show boys what a man looks like. Masculine power must be harnessed by the Father's culture into goodness.

There is a real danger of escalation of the war in Ukraine. Billions from America are being spent there, but nothing to protect our own southern border. Dictators don't value human life, they value power. Russians have resisted numerous invasions in their thousand-year history. Americans assume that China and Russia have the same values of protecting human life, but consider that they have a doctrine of a winnable and survivable nuclear war, including underground bunkers in China that cover 30 square miles.

Armies can feign weakness as a trap. Never underestimate your opponent.

The United States has 3 electric power grids that could be taken out by 1-2 atomic EMP blasts in the atmosphere. With no electricity, sudden sharp reductions in communication, transportation, heat, water supplies, and food, 90% of the U.S. population would struggle to survive even a few months.

We are in an extremely dangerous situation being led by an irresponsible and blind leftist elite. No sane, moral person wants to see a new world war.

After purchasing the Cheongpyeong property in Thorn Hill, Tennessee, Hyung Jin Nim was driving and praying for guidance as to where his family should stay, he saw a rainbow ending right on the road he was driving on.

We pray for peace, but prepare for the worst. Through this darkness God will show us a way out. Let us hold onto our Father in heaven.

The Holy Spirit leads us to repent and turn from our sins. As things get worse, more will see miracles, more will turn to God, and more blessed couples will be coronated. Pray for confusion in the enemies' camp. God will make a way for His people.

Kook Jin Nim on the Constitution of Cheon Il Guk

The following notes were taken during a talk by Kook Jin Nim at a Freedom Society meeting on 3/24.

True Father stated that his successor would establish the Constitution of Cheon Il Guk (Heavenly Nation). Why? The Messiah does not live forever, except for his lineage who have the responsibility for carrying on his words, traditions and spirit. It is the responsibility of a true mother to respect Father's will regarding his anointed lineage by serving the 2nd king and 3rd king whom Father appointed. These are the 3 Generation Kingships.

We see this same pattern in the 3 generations of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The mission was completed during 3 generations.

True Father could not establish this by himself. Hak Ja Han had the responsibility to choose to honor and support the anointed son and grandson, an option she rejected. Hence, the 2nd or "Isaac" generation is responsible to offer itself as a sacrifice. Hyung Jin Nim had to build the offering, which was to gather the patriot movement. Despite mass media labeling of all who attended as "domestic terrorists," it was successfully made and accepted on January 6, 2021 at the U.S. Capitol. This will lead to the expansion of God's Kingdom and to the spread of the Constitution of CIG.

Our creation as imperfect beings does not indicate a failure on the part of God because His purpose was to allow us to have co-creatorship and freely choose to love God. Learning from our own immaturity is part of God's perfect plan.

The Constitution of Cheon Il Guk starts with the 3 guidelines left by True Father for us to follow: purity of lineage, human rights, and no misuse of public funds.

Principle I: Maintain the Pure Lineage of God

Many women are highly intelligent, so why should a capable woman submit herself to her husband? To uphold the will of God on earth regarding the father's leadership in the family.

The Constitution states that government will give no aid to promoting alternative lifestyles, but it is not required to punish those.

Blessed marriage leads to creation of brothers and sisters and therefore the need to protect human rights.

Principle II: Do Not Harm Human Rights

The ten rights in the Constitution of CIG are the same as in the U.S. Bill of Rights, but now at the beginning of the document instead of at the end.

The U.S. Constitution was nearly perfect, at the top of the growth stage, but to be at the top of the growth stage, means you can fall. That is why no amendments are allowed in the CIG Constitution.

Principle III: Do Not Abuse Public Funds

As clearly indicated in the Bible, the Kingdom of God has a King. True Father also spoke about the central role of his anointed heir. Therefore, the CIG Constitution has a King who is the anointed heir, but he is not a dictator who can control life and death, declare war, or seize resources. He does have responsibility to approve nominations to the Supreme Court and he can also receive appeals to Supreme Court decisions.

In history monarchies are the most durable form of government. In Cheon Il Guk, it is mostly a spiritual, non-political position, that provides a unifying center for the nation.

Kook Jin Nim told the story of King Henry II and Archbishop Thomas Becket who was killed according to the King's orders. Bad things started to happen, so the King walked barefoot in sack cloth to Canterbury Cathedral and was whipped by 300 monks. This showing of contrition and repentance restored the relationship between the state and the church, and King Henry II went on to establish English Common Law including the right to trial by jury.

If Cheon Il Guk were to be ruled by a "supreme council," as stated in the Family Fed's Constitution, that would mean rule by an oligarchy. In history rule by oligarchy usually benefits... the oligarchs.

The Cheon Il Guk Constitution states that the federal government only investigates (through the office of the Inspector General) government officials or those who receive money from the government for misuse of government funds or human rights violations.

The CIG Constitution can be seen as a political platform to be brought about not through violent revolution, but rather through votes and political parties. It is likely that different elements would be adopted piece by piece, as its ideas are evaluated for why they would be beneficial for the nation.

"Since humankind has received satanic blood, people cannot return to God on their own. So the Messiah must accomplish absolute restoration of the lineage, renewing the bloodline that was defiled by Satan. This transition must be made. This is why the Messiah must surely come."

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the Biblically-based teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
