

CHRIST is on the THRONE

Abandoned “Cross of the Heart” Pt. 2

For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans for welfare and not for evil, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon me and come and pray to me, and I will hear you. You will seek me and find me, when you seek me with all your heart. Jeremiah 29:11-13

We are the champions and soldiers of God, and we are here to truly give ourselves to liberate the world, mankind, and God Himself.

Greetings!

Newfoundland Sanctuary pastor Kyle Toffey started his sermon by talking about several positive trends in America: more young men are going to church, seeking guidance for their lives. More corruption is being exposed. The Rod of Iron Freedom Festival was a huge success.

Each of us should reflect on the small and big miracles in our lives. A big event this past year was the 2nd King moving to Asia. Most of all, True Father, the returning Christ, is on the throne!

Mary was pregnant with Jesus in the house of Zachariah. True Father has said Jesus should have been raised in that house, but it did not happen. The 3 Kings who brought gifts to Jesus should have found a way to stay and raise him. Despite such setbacks, God still worked to raise Jesus to be His powerful son, able to bring a new understanding that changed the world! The unchanging goal for all of us is to become God's mature son or daughter.

Hyung Jin Nim did not waver in standing for the truth about Father's victory. Satan has his plans as well, to destroy mankind and take God's place. Whether we realize it or not, we are living in the midst of a cosmic battle.

There are 373 references in the Bible to God as the Lord of the Armies. A passage in 2 Kings 19:35 describes an angel striking down 185,000 Assyrians who were besieging Jerusalem during the time of King Hezekiah. The Assyrian King Sennacherib was forced to retreat and was later murdered by his sons.

We are also living in a providential age. Many saints longed to see this time in history. Let us seek to hear God's voice. When we do our absolute best, the spirit world will be mobilized to work at our side.

More Reflections on the Abandoned “Cross of the Heart”

There are several points I want to share about Mother Hak Ja Han that I haven't heard anyone discuss elsewhere.

Mother's essential indemnity foundation

The first is that Mother's indemnity foundation is supposed to be her forbearance with all the emotional pain that she experienced as a result of taking her mission and from her relationship with Father Sun Myung Moon. This is especially true regarding his involvement with other women.

From what I recall of reading Father's words and hearing him speak, this is supposed to be the “cross of the heart,” I think it was called, that she is to bear without complaint. Sharing her husband with other women is exactly what Sarah could not do, Elizabeth could not do, and a parallel was the challenge that Judas could not face, Joseph could not face, and others—Lucifer being, of course, the first one who could not share his beloved with another.

Thus, Mother's complaining about Father's involvement with other women, calling it his sin and mistake, declaring this as a new part of God's teaching and spreading this assertion to us as her children, is seriously problematic. This is possibly negating her indemnity foundation, a catastrophic development. Given that she did not suffer externally the way that Father did, it seems like she is now destroying her own “claim to fame” that was to have brought her into equivalence with Father (her new claims of divine lineage notwithstanding).

It is perhaps similar to Jesus retracting his revolutionary forgiveness of his enemies on the cross. If Jesus could not forgive his enemies, demonstrating God’s love for Satan’s people, if Father had not demonstrated forgiveness of his enemies, then they would’ve been disqualified as the representative of God on earth. It was their incomprehensible level of love that brought Satan to a natural surrender before them.

The comparison may appear too extreme. But she does appear to be voicing a grudge that either she harbored in her heart for decades or that gradually came to her in the course of her grief after Father's death. It certainly sounds like personal resentment, and this represents a monumental failure of forgiveness for Father and possibly women who participated.

If so, she appears to be repeating a grave providential error and negating her qualification as the bride of Christ.

"Sanctuary Church" is short-hand for "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary" which is from calligraphy on a scroll presented to Hyung Jin Moon by his father, Rev. Sun Myung Moon. The purpose of the "World Peace and Unification Sanctuary, Inc." is to "preserve and propagate the Biblically-based teachings of Reverend Sun Myung Moon."
